

USESI to Buy Wiedenbach-Brown Co.

MODERN DISTRIBUTION MANAGEMENT, July 13, 2006

US Electrical Services, LLC, Chester Springs, PA, has agreed to purchase Wiedenbach-Brown Co., Inc., Westchester County, NY. WB's current-year sales are forecast to reach $90 million.

Founded in 1913, WB brings expertise in national account lighting and electrical supply. WB has offices in Hicksville, New Rochelle and Hawthorne, New York; Boston; Columbus; Kansas City; Los Angeles; and Seattle.

"WB is a first-class company and a standard of excellence in national account electrical supply. We are extremely pleased to have WB as part of US Electrical," said Richard Worthy, Chairman and CEO of USESI. Worthy is the former CEO of Sonapar.

WB will retain its name and operations. The current management team, including owners Christopher Brown and Elisabeth Brown-Daley, and President James Leahy, will remain with the company.

Wiedenbach-Brown Co., Inc., specializes in providing electrical products and services to national account companies across the U.S.

US Electrical Services, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company with principal offices of operation in Chester Springs, PA, is engaged in the wholesale distribution of electrical products and related services.
